SUFFERING with the rheumatism, shrivelled limbs, or contracted cords, which render him helpless and unable to provide for his family? Perhaps he may be incredulous and unwilling to try any remedy, but we can assure you that a great remedy and an effectual cure, to wit, the Indian Vegetable Elixir and Liniment. There can be no mistake as to the effects of these articles. The Elixir being taken internally operates directly upon the whole nervous system, and finds its way to the seat of the disease, while the Liniment being applied outwardly, removes all pain. This course will cure any case of Rheumatism, Palsy, &c. Call and send forthwith and procure these articles of the Agents.

Cheap Cash STOVE WAREHOUSE

Nos. 80 and 82 Main-Street, BANGOR.

The largest, cheapest and best assortment of Stoves of all descriptions ever offered in this city.

NATHANIEL JOHNSON, 2d, now has just received and has on hand and for sale, cheaper than ever before offered, the best assortment of Air-Tight Cooking and Parlor STOVES, to be found in Maine. He challenges competition from any quarter, in the style, quality, cheapness, convenience and durability of his stoves. All in want are advised to give him a call, and thus save money, and enhance their comfort and convenience.

Among his extensive collection of Stoves may be found the following patterns and styles:

The Major Parlor Cook Stove, which stands unrivalled—it is the best ever made; was cast expressly for me, is of the best of stock, is more than a ton and if any one sold less than a ton and if any one sold does not prove satisfactory, it can be returned any time within 30 days from the sale, and the price paid will be refunded.

A new and beautiful article of Parlor Stove with engine, patented last July. This is decidedly the most elegant article for the parlor ever offered.

PATENT AIR-TIGHT ELEVATED OVEN COOKING STOVES.

This Stove has been on sale but a short time, still has obtained a greater notoriety than any other Stove ever offered, for its superiority and excellence in every branch of cooking, as well as its great economy in fuel.

Stewart's Summer and Winter Air-Tight Cooking Stoves.

Also Wager's Air Tight Cook Stove, warranted to give perfect satisfaction.

Likewise the PREMIUM AIR-TIGHT with cast iron tops, and bottom—lining inside—will keep its color and shape, &c. he holds a Stove Hardware Store—Hampden, Stove Furnace, Stove, 4 boilers—Empire Union Stove—Shepherd's Hotel, and 50 other kinds, of all descriptions.

N. J. respectfully invites the citizens of Bangor and the adjoining country to call and examine his immense collection of Stoves, promising to sell them as cheap as they can be bought at any other establishment in the State. Especially would he caution his country friends against placing too implicit a confidence in those itinerant venders of Stoves, to whom they must not only pay a round price for their Stoves, but they are also taxed for horse hire and other heavy expenses in addition.

Please call at 80 and 82 Main-st Bangor.

Orders for Copper, Sheet Iron, and Tin Work greatly the received and promptly executed.

DR. WISTAR'S

BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY

THIS is the celebrated Pectoral for universal Consumption, Asthma, Coughs, Colds, Shortness of Breath, Pleurisy, Croup, whooping cough, and all diseases of the Breast and Lungs, tending to Consumption.

CERTIFICATES—Over twenty thousand cures performed in one year in Philadelphia, by this invaluable medicine, and yet no pretension. The Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is now universally acknowledged to be the most efficacious remedy for all diseases of the Breast and Lungs.

CERTIFICATE OF A CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

This author are informed that a lady residing in Spring Garden, was given up by her physicians, and her friends were informed that she was in the last stage of Consumption, and could not live a few days longer. Her friends procured a bottle of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and before she had taken the whole bottle she was pronounced by her physicians to be out of danger, and in a fair way to recovery. Her friends, on hearing this, procured another bottle, which she took, and is now in perfect health. Her friends are well acquainted with the above facts, and will testify to the truth of the above statement. Price $1 per bottle, or 6 bottles for $5.

Common Schools.

We have received from Boadicat Harlow, Esq. the report of the Committee of the Legislature on the subject of common school education, together with a copy of a bill reported by them to the Legislature.

The report sets forth in a felicitous manner the importance of our common schools and the fact that they have ever been cherished as of paramount importance by statesmen and as dear to the affections of the philanthropist. It then proceeds to give a graphic historical sketch of the improvements in common schools in several of the States, and points out the effective operating causes. It then comes down to an examination of the action necessary to be taken in this State in reference to the matter, and of the ability of the State to prosecute the enterprise—the present condition of our schools, &c. the committee finally concluding that the establishment of a board of education is the first step in the path of future progress, and without it there can be no uniform and pervading system. We hope this report may be widely circulated, and content ourselves with this brief notice as introductory to the bill, intending in a few days to lay the whole report before our readers.

The following is the bill reported:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled—as follows:

Sec. 1. The Governor with the advice of Council is hereby authorized to appoint not less than three nor more than five suitable persons who shall constitute and be denominated a board of commissioners of common schools, and forthwith cause one year from and after the first day of May next.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the board to devote themselves diligently during the time for which they are appointed, or so much of said time as may be necessary to the collection of all such statistics and information as may be made to further the improvement of common schools. And it shall be the duty of the board to examine thoroughly into the condition of the common schools of this State—the diversity of text books—the uniformity of establishing school district libraries and Normal schools, and to examine into all matters pertaining to or connected with the common school, and to make a full and specific report after a thorough investigation of the whole subject matter of such plan for the better organization and improvement of common schools as may be deemed advisable, and upon the expediency of constituting a permanent board of education and the mode and manner of constituting it, and the power and duties thereof, such report to be made to the Governor previous to the meeting of the Legislature of 1846.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to cause so many copies of said report to be printed and for such purposes as the Gov. and Council may deem advisable—reserving for the members of the Legislature of 1846 not a less number than 350.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to transmit to the selectmen of the several towns and the assessors of plantations of the State such blanks to be filled up in such manner as the said board may prescribe; and it is hereby made the duty of said selectmen and assessors to make returns of the condition of said schools, in conformity with the forms so prescribed, to the Secretary of State, and within such time as he may prescribe.

Sec. 5. A sum not exceeding two thousand five hundred dollars is hereby appropriated for the foregoing purposes, to be paid out of the money accruing from the bank tax, to be expended under the direction of the Governor and Council.

☞ The Concert of the Bangor Musical Association on Thursday evening was a brilliant affair. The church was filled with delighted auditors and they were highly pleased with the exercises. The whole concert should make inviting preparation for repeating this Concert and thus give all an opportunity of listening to their masterly execution.

Removals.

The Washington Correspondent of the Baltimore Patriot writes as follows:

Those who believe this Administration will not practice proscription, do not know the materials of which it is composed. Mr. Mathew St. Clair Clarke, the Sixth Auditor, Mr. Plasanton the Fifth, Mr. Penrose, the Solicitor of the Treasury, Mr. McCulloh, the Comptroller, Mr. Miller, the Second Assistant Postmaster General, and perhaps others of a similar grade, will have to go. Mr. John S. Skinner, the Third Assistant Postmaster General, may possibly keep his place, for he has always been a sort of a Jackson-Armstrong-Donelson-Polk man, (though took Van Buren, mang and besides, can if he chooses, wield a powerful pen for or against a party.

For the Second Assistant Postmaster General ship, now filled by Miller, John Tyler's son-in-law, John B. Weller of Ohio, of the late Congress has been an applicant, but public it is said in favor of Gen. Hunt of Ohio, the brother-in-law of Gov. Case. Hunt is a fine, worthy man, and is here on the spot. Lt. Governor Cleaveland of Connecticut is pushing hard for the same place. Cleaveland, Fairfield, Sixth Auditor, will, and ought to be, removed. Gr. perhaps he will be reinstated in his old place. Some Kendall, Polk man is named for the City Postmaster, but he may be rejected.

☞ The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, for March, 1845.

We have received from Mr Wm R. Foster, the Bangor Agent, the March number of this excellent Magazine. Circulation H Greene and published by Leavitt, Trow & Co. New York.

This number is embellished with an elegant Plate. The table of contents is varied and rich from the best of European Periodicals. Each number contains about one hundred and fifty pages for sixteen cents—a price at which it should be well supported.

☞ The Bangor Mechanics' Association will hold a Festival on the Birth Day of Franklin, the Patriot, Philosopher and Statesman, on Tuesday evening next, at Masonic Hall. Tickets 75 cents. Gentlemen and ladies are invited to attend.

City Affairs.

IN COMMON COUNCIL, } March 21, 1845. }

Immediately on the Board being called to order Mr. Walker announced the death of Richard F. Webster, Esq. City Clerk, and delivered a brief notice of his character, and introduced the following resolutions:

Whereas, it has seemed good to Heaven whose hand our life is, to remove by death, Richard F. Webster, Esq., City Clerk of this city, after a very severe and protracted illness,

Resolved, That the sympathies and mortal infirmity of the deceased as a man, and his fidelity in the discharge of all the duties devolved on him by his office, have endeared him to the hearts of great and grateful remembrance of all who knew him, and most of all to those who had the privilege of knowing him best.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the widow and children who by the death of Mr. Webster have been so severely bereaved; may they experience every alleviation which christian sympathy can impart, and that infinitely higher alleviation derived from christianity itself.

Resolved, (the board of Aldermen concurring) That the Mayor be requested personally to present to the afflicted widow a copy of these resolutions, and that he be requested to direct the usual recognizances and charges according to her wishes, and what to him may seem proper, at the expense of the city.

Passed by a unanimous vote and sent down for concurrence.

A Fine Plymouth Mass. Memorial states that on St. Patrick's day three Irishmen were killed by Seth Perry who kept a liquor store in Hanover, in that State. In a scuffle among some Irishmen, Perry fired three shots killing a man each time. Perry has been arrested and committed on a charge of murder.

☞ The Boston train on the Long Island Railroad ran off the rails at Bedford on Wednesday morning, owing to the misplacement of a switch. No injury to any person. Baggage cars only damaged.

Inroads of the Comanches—Capture of two Mexican Girls.

An intelligent gentleman who left Chihuahua some six weeks or two months since, gives us interesting and startling intelligence in relation to the inroads recently made by the dreaded Comanches into the States of Chihuahua and Durango, and of the ravages they have committed during their predatory incursions. Thousands and thousands of horses and cattle have been driven off, women have been led into captivity, ranches and haciendas innumerable have been made desolate—nor is there force enough to make headway against and rid the country successfully of the invaders. When repulsed in one place they appear in another, and commence anew their depredations and atrocities.

It is suspected, and with good show of reason, that a number of half breed Cherokee renegades are among the Comanches, instigating them to these deeds, and perhaps leading them on to their commission. On one occasion, a party numbering one 100 mounted free waggons with their way from Chihuahua to some other point, bent upon capturing and plundering their contents. A number of Americans were with the wagons, and determined to resist to the last, they stationed themselves in the most advantageous position, and commenced a fire upon their assailants, and continued it for two hours, when they were choosing their position that a voice from the Indians was heard shouting, in excellent English, "That's right, huddle together, d——d."

The waggoners finally made out to beat off their assailants, and they were positive that Cherokees were among the Indians. Many of the Mexicans present that the Camanches, from the daring and systematic mode of their attacks, are led by Americans; but this is flatly denied by all the natives of the United States, who know that the Cherokee or some of our Western Indians are leagued with their more savage brethren on the prairies.

To show the daring of the Indians, and the extent to which they go in their marauding, a party of some 400 or 500 in broad day light recently dashed boldly into Cuenrame, a town of several thousand inhabitants near the southern line of the State of Durango, and carried off a large number of valuable horses, besides many prisoners—the panic stricken inhabitants hardly making a show of resistance. Among the prisoners were two young, pretty, and well informed girls, the daughters of a wealthy merchant of that place. The girls were at a small country seat of their father's near the edge of the town, were among the first taken, and were carried off by their captors to the North. Their half brother, present officer in Santa Anna's army, made no or scarcely any, but all his effort had been ineffectual up to last accounts. We recollect these girls well, having spent a better part of two days at their father's house while on the march from Santa Fe to Mexico. The hospitality of the parent and the graceful deportment of his kind hearted daughters have not yet been forgotten, and it is melancholy to reflect that such a cruel fate has befallen them.—N. O. Pic. March 3.

Religion.

Whoever thinks lightly or trifles with religion is a fool, and discovers a total ignorance of his own nature. In whatever other respects mankind may differ in whatever else they disagree, in one thing they are alike, there is in all, one common sentiment of religion. In all ages, in all countries, under all the varied circumstances that men have lived, this is apparent.

Neither learning nor ignorance, civilization, or barbarity has been able to eradicate this from the breast of man, and it may be safely asserted that out of the few infidels that have from time to time appeared and openly warred against it and sought to destroy it, not one, after all their sophistries, sophistry, learning and ingenuity, has been able to smother or root it out of his own bosom, much less out of others. So deeply planted is this in the human heart, so wrought into the character of mankind, that after looking at it, it cannot, it must not, and consequences are considered, for say that religion is a part of man, an element of his soul, that it was born with him, a part of his being, and can be never rooted out. Some have, consequently, those who would indeed upon our liberty, would thrust from their bosom, much less out of others. Some have indeed sworn eternal war against God and against the country successfully or the invaders. When repulsed in one place they appear in another, and commence anew their depredations and atrocities.

It is suspected, and with good show of reason, that a number of half breed Cherokee renegades are among the Comanches, instigating them to these deeds, and perhaps leading them on to their commission. Fire.

At about quarter past 11 o'clock, last night, a fire broke out in a Barber's shop in East Market Square, occupied by "old Jimmy." Damage slight.

"Talking of your relations," said Mr. Simms to his wife, I believe you are related to the d——l."

"I am," responded his better half, "by marriage."

☞ Cloths brought in by customers will be cut and made, and warranted to fit, if not satisfactory Cash will be refunded to the customers.

Issued this day from Main Pillar of Oak Hall.

Bangor, March 20.

THE FRENCH LANGUAGE

TAUGHT ORALLY,

ROOM OVER

SMITH & FENNO'S STORE.

M. ROYT respectfully offers his services as oral French instructor. His experience of twelve years teaching French orally in several Colleges, and a large number of Academies, both in New England and New York, in which he has instructed persons of every profession and pursuit, including Professors in Colleges, Divines, Physicians, Lawyers, Members of Congress, Merchants, Artists, Mechanics &c &c., enables him to adapt his instructions to minds of every calibre. The instruction being entirely oral, the organs of hearing and speech are thoroughly called to the pronunciation, the instructor being the principal one, and enabling them firmly in the mind by constant practice, and the consequence is, that where due attention is paid to his lessons, he never fails to make a rapid progress.—Wherever this mode of instruction is once known, the most the highest commendations from men of the profession in society and eminent literature have resulted from its sound judges.

Mr. H refers to His Excellency Gov. Kent, Hon. Appleton & Hill, Hon. Judge Parker, Hon. John S. Sayward, Esqs.; Gen. S. P. Strickland, and Herschah Winslow, Esq. Rev. Mr. Pomeroy, Bangor; John Neal, Phineas Barnes, William Collins, Charles Jones, Esqs.; Rev. Mr. Chickering, Portland.

Ladies and gentlemen forming private social classes, engage their friends, will be waited upon at their residences, without extra charge.

Pupils should apply immediately in which case he will have ample time to ground them thoroughly in the pronunciation and grammatical construction of the language.

For further particulars please read over one of circulars which may be had at the bookstores of Messrs Smith & Fenno, D. Bugbee, E. F. Burr, or of Mr. H. at his Recitation Room, over Messrs. Smith & Fenno's Store.

BOOK-KEEPING.

MR. HOYT is the author of a NEW SYSTEM of BOOK-KEEPING, combining advantages to the retail dealer and manufacturer not met with in any other system ever invented. SINGLE, CASH, BANK, and EXPENSE account is kept, and the exact profits, &c. of the business obtained as correctly as if Ledger Books were used in double entry. The trouble of a Journal is dispensed with, thus being only three books, CASH, DAY BOOK and LEDGER. No merchant or trader need purchase new books in order to adopt this system. The only trouble is taking a statement of the stocks on hand, after which the books can be opened in ten minutes. So simple is the plan that a person can be taught it in three hours as well as by a week's labor. It has been most liberally patronized in all the large country towns, and Manufactories in New England, and recently in the city of Providence, and in many more in Portland, where more than 40 merchants, trades and manufacturers purchased the work, and most, if not all, are now following it up in their books. Mr H. refers to his hand bills for further details.

Double Entry Book Keeping

Mr. H. hereby gives notice that he will receive a few young gentlemen under his care, and qualify them for situations. Terms accommodating in addition. They will be taught Double-entry Book-keeping; Commercial Arithmetic or short method; calculations in use in counting rooms, Exchange, &c. and Penmanship.

Mr. H has a number of his pupils in New York and New Orleans, who are in first rate situations; this course will occupy some time, and require a great deal of Mr. H's attention, it is required that pupils should not neglect applying immediately, as in a few pupils will be received.
